MASON CITY | Matt Younkin in his Twin Beech 18 and Julie Clark in her T-34 Mentor are among the aerial performers at the Fly Iowa air show July 25-26 at the Mason City Municipal Airport.

The Nadas, a North Iowa band, will also perform and there will be fireworks.

"Our acts include some of the biggest in the air show industry today," said Adam Glowaski, Fly

Iowa 2015 chairman. "We are very proud to be able to put on an event of this caliber for the North Iowa community."

In addition to Younkin and Clark, performers include Erik Edgren in his Clipped Wing Taylorcraft; The Texas Flying Legends Museum in their F4-U-Cosair, Zero, B-25, P-51, P-40, TBM Avenger; Mike Galloway in his Extra 300; the Vanguard Squadron in 4 RV-3s; Larry Lumpkijn in a P-51 Mustang; and Larry Kramer in an RC Jet.

The event is free and open to the public.
