IOWA INDUSTRY

lowa not only leads the nation in its agricultural prominence, but during the last ten years has taken-on THE NEW LOOK . . . the State "Where

of World War II, 1,500 new industries have located in lowa, and in 1958 the state's industrial output totaled more than $4,700,000,000. Iowa offers industry a central location in the heart of a vast market area . . a modern network of hard-surfaced highways . . . first-class air, rail and water transportation . . . excellent utilities, and a plentiful supply of efficient, intelligent labor. These many advantages, together with lowa's scenic beauty, and its offer of contented living, continues to offer industry, both large and small, abundant

ROADSIDE PARKS . REST AREAS

One hundred and twenty-five roadside parks and safety rest areas are located along lowa's primary and interstate highways. These areas are indicated on the highway map with a red dot; roadside parks providing free electricity carry the red dot and circle symbol, and the Interstate safety rest areas are identified with a small red square. Facilities provided include tables, fire-places or charcoal burners, and trash cans. No overnight camping is permitted.

STATE PARKS . RECREATION

The Iowa State Conservation Commission has jurisdiction over ninety-one state parks and preserves comprising more than 28,000 acres. There are also seven state forest areas and one forest nursery, totaling over 13,000 acres, lowa has seventy-two natural lakes and twenty-four artificial lakes with a total of 46,386 acres, 900 miles of inland meandered streams, and 600 miles of boundary streams which are available for the enjoyment of the public. Most state parks and preserve areas have parking and picnic facilities, in addition to other conveniences for park visitors. Many provide overnight camping, The pine tree symbol used on the highway map locates the State Parks. A solid pine tree indicates that overnight camping is permitted in the park. Six and one-half million persons are visiting the lowa state parks annually.

In all areas, the natural flora and fauna are encouraged, and every effort is made to keep the larger portion of the areas in a natural state. In monument areas, preservation and restoration work is being done in an effort to hold and perpetuate the state's historical background.

The beauty of the state's native flowers, topography and landscape may be enjoyed by all our citizens and visitors in lowa's excellent state park system.

BEAUTIFUL

Don't be a Litterbug . . . Keep Our Highways Safe and Clean. Litter causes accidents . . a menace to health, and costly. Last year over $100,000 was spent to remove litte along Iowa highways. Throw ing trash on lowa highways is punishable by a $100 fine. Carry a litterbag in your car... KEEP IOWA BEAUTIFUL.
