Jeff von Brown, Systems Planning Bureau; Last month I presented a recommended change to the Commercial Industrial Network designation and abbreviations. This is due to the completion of the Southwest Arterial that lies partly in the city limits of Dubuque but with the majority in the county. The Arterial connects U.S. 20 on the west end to U.S. 61/U.S. 151 on the east end and is signed as US 52. Mileage added is 5.399 for a new CIN total of approximately 2,527. This within the 2,600 mile state code of Iowa cap that has been set for the CIN network.

It is recommended that the Commission to approve this modification to the CIN.

Commissioner Rielly made a motion approve this modification to the CIN. Commissioner Putney seconded the motion. Motion passes unanimously.

Stuart Anderson, Transportation Development Division; This is information only, and this is intended to formally announce the availability of the Draft 2022 to 2026 Iowa Transportation Improvement Program for public comment. The document is now available on the DOT's website and the draft program includes approximately $3.6 billion of state and federal funding allocated to specific road and bridge projects on the state highway system over the next five years. In addition, the document includes a summary of your actions in the past year to award funds to all other modal programs that the DOT administers we will take public input over the next month. We will share that input with you and bring back a recommended final program for your action at the June meeting. So at this time I'd be happy to take any questions.
