

Motor Vehicle Division Informational Memo # 21-13

Transporter License Plate Administrative Rule Updates

DATE: May 10, 2021

FROM: Sara Siedsma, Compliance Officer, MVD

TO: All Motor Vehicle Division staff, Iowa County Treasurers and County Treasurer's staff

SUBJECT

This informational memo explains an update to administrative rule chapter 761—424, Transporter Plates and is most applicable to staff involved with issuing transporter license plates to those engaged in delivering motor vehicles for compensation.

SUMMARY

The amendments make two technical changes to chapter 424. One of the changes updates the contact information and form submission process for obtaining a transporter plate. The other change adds clarity to the rules by including the implementing code section citations for the transporter plates application process and associated fees.

The administrative rule amendments are effective May 12, 2021.

CURRENT

Administrative rule chapter 761—424 previously contained outdated contact information and did not include implementing code section citations for the transporter plates application process and associated fees.

NEW

As of May 12, 2021, the rules will now contain updated contact information and include implementing code section citations for the transporter plates application process and associated fees.

BUSINESS IMPACT

This directive does not impact the way that MVD staff issues transporter plates as the changes were merely technical in nature.
